Required Elements to Receive GPSG Supplemental Funds

- 1) Organizations must be certified by the Student Organization Resource Center (SORC). Please visit <http://www.sorc.pitt.edu/> for further information.
- 2) Organizations should have sought other funding prior to applying to the GPSG.
 - a. Possible alternative sources may include but not limited to:
 - i. Schools
 - ii. Other student organizations interested in co-hosting the event
 - iii. Sponsors
 - iv. Etc.
 - b. Please contact the VP of Finance at finance.gpsg@pitt.edu to learn about possible existing limits for supplemental funding applications
- 3) Organizations may only receive supplemental funds once during a fiscal year (July 1 to June 30) however, they can apply multiple times if not received before
- 4) Organizations may receive a maximum of $2,000 in GPSG supplemental funding per request. This cap applies per fiscal year and is intended to allow GPSG to support a broader number of organizations with available funds.
- 5) A $2,000 maximum does not guarantee that any organization will receive that amount. Awards remain subject to review under GPSG's standard funding criteria.
- 6) If GPSG supplemental funding is awarded, GPSG must be recognized and advertised as co-sponsor of the event
- 7) An attendee sign-up sheet must be submitted to the GPSG after each event.
- 8) All funds granted will be deposited into the student organization SORC account. Organizations must work with SORC to purchase approved items/materials/expenses.
- 9) The event must be advertised through GPSG at least two weeks in advance of the event. Send a brief description and any promotional material to the VP of Communications: communications.gpsg@pitt.edu
- 10) This application must be submitted at least four weeks in advance of the event.
- 11) No retroactive funds will be approved
- 12) Graduate student groups are only eligible for applying to supplemental funding if they have previously submitted their budget allocation
